Project Introduction:

The work of Floris Hovers is very diverse and surprising because of the disarming simplicity. No abstract minimalism, but the end result of a long process of reduction and perseverance. What remains is the essence, an almost cartoonish composition of form, construction and color. Color is very important and is an integral part of every design, the finishing touch.

With his autonomous work, prototypes, miniatures and (product) designs for the industry, Floris Hovers invites you always in his almost perfectly simple world where there is plenty of room for your own imagination as an observer.
