Hosted By:

Project Introduction:

At Beeldenstorm / Daglicht it is all about 'making'. We want to promote innovation in art and design by stimulating designers and artists to explore new ways with facilities, knowledge, research and actual production. In our workshops you can experiment with materials and investigate all kind of possibilities to realize your concepts. As such we are part of the research & development department of the creative industry. We offer possibilities to work with metal, glass, plastic and graphical techniques.
