

Project Title: No Waste Workshops

Hosted By:

Project Introduction:

Dutch fashion designer Emily Hermans is known for her artisan approach to fashion, with a strong focus on materials and techniques. Many of the fabrics she uses are fully self-developed.

MLY is increasingly regarded as a green label. She uses a lot of eco certified yarns and natural, biodegradable fibers. Printed items are largely digitally printed, which consumes considerably less water than other printing processes. Also, biodegradable inks are used for printing.

Project Introduction:

We envision a world where everyone can be the best version of themselves. We wish to contribute to such a world with sustainable, colourful clothing that empowers women. Our brand is known for its artisan approach to fashion. Many of the fabrics we use are fully self-developed, and the major part of the production process takes place in the Netherlands.
